THANKSGIVING.

BY AMY RANDOLPH.

IT WAS IN A RED BRICK farmhouse, one side all covered with the scarlet festoons of a luxuriant Virginia creeper, and white doves fluttering fitfully around the eaves—a farmhouse that had been in the Jaycox family for fully 100 years, and yet wore an aspect of thrifty comfort that did one's heart good to see. To be sure, the ceilings were low, and the window-panes small, and the floor boards neither oak nor walnut, but plain, old-fashioned hickory, but what did Theron Jaycox care for that? Where was the use of mere outside show, when all the neighbors knew perfectly well that Theron Jaycox was the richest man in all the countryside?

"Theron!"

Helen Jaycox came bustling into the room, a slender, spruce old maid, with glossy, reddish hair, and a trim figure completely clipsed in the un-Grecian drapery of a blue check apron. There was flour on her bared arms and a general atmosphere of cloves and cinnamon and allspice about her, that plainly betokened the arrival of baking-day, even if the red glare of the cavernous oven in the kitchen beyond had not added its incontrovertible testimony.

"What is it, Helen?"

Theron Jaycox is our hero, but he is neither young nor handsome—only a stout, stalwart fellow of five and thirty, with locks brown and shining as newly ripened chestnuts, clear hazel eyes, and a complexion that has been bronzed by all the harvest winds that sweep across his broad lands.

"We must have a Thanksgiving dinner for Thursday, Theron."

"What, all by ourselves, Nell?"

"Why not? It doesn't seem right to let the day slip by, like the other 364. Just let me have my own way for once, and you shall see what I can do in the cranberry-tart and pumpkin pie line!"

"As if I doubted your proficiency, Nell!"

"And such a turkey as I'll roast for you! to say nothing about chicken pies, baked ducks, and everything else that's nicel Theron, don't you remember the last Thanksgiving day that ever our dear mother was alive, when we had the great pyramid of late roses and chrysanthemums in the middle of the table, and Squire Maynard's family were here, and—"

Helen Jaycox checked herself suddenly, while the deep crimson suffused neck and brow and cheek with its burning tide. But Theron quietly took up the dropped thread of her speech.

"And Alice Kearney—yes, I remember it very well. I question if I shall ever forget that day, Helen!"

For one instant Helen's dark eyes met those of her brother; both were suffused with a mist of tears. Then she hurried back into the bright kitchen.

"Why did I recall that day of all others, to his memory?" she said to herself, as she sifted sugar and rained down spices, and stirred in bloomy raisins. "He loves her yet—he never loved any one else in all the world—and yet she threw his heart's devotion away like a broken toy, and ran away with the worthless actor just when poor Theron's hopes were brightest. How could she? Oh, how could she? I wonder what has become of her now—whether she is dead or living! How beautiful she looked that day, the rose in her hair was not half as pink as her cheek, and her eyes were just as blue and deep as I've seen the sky look after a thunder shower. I don't wonder that Theron loved her, and yet when I remember how entirely she has blasted his whole life, I am tempted to hate her."

So it dawned bright and cloudless, that thanksgiving day, with sunshine that rose up into the blue zenith like great billows of gold, and a wind that was sharp and merciless as an assassin's knife.

"You are not going to the city this morning, Theron?"

For the little wagon was at the door with the black ponies before it, and Theron Jaycox was buttoning his brown overcoat, while Helen ran out to the gate.

"Yes, I am, Nelly."

"What for?"

"I have business to transact, and moreover, Nell, who knows but I may bring home with me some poor soul to whom the abundance of our Thanksgiving dinner may seem like the Land of Plenty itself?"

Helen was silent.

"Theron," she said at last, as he took the reins in his fur-gloved hands, "I do wish you would get married."

"I shall never do that, Nelly."

"Never, Theron?" she pleaded.

"Never, Nelly. We must be contented to keep one another company for the rest of our days, as old bachelor and old maid, dear."

He smiled down upon her as he drove away, but it was not a cheerful smile, and Helen went in with a chill around her heart that was not the icy touch of the bitter November wind.

* * * * *

"Mamma, O mamma! I am so cold!"

"Button your jacket up to your throat, Willie, and sit in this sunshine, that will make you warmer."

"But, mamma, whydon't we have a fire?"

"There is no more coal, Willie."

"We could buy some, mamma, Mrs. Jones bought a whole wheelbarrowful yesterday."

"But Mrs. Jones had money, my son, and we have none."

Willie Hardwicke looked piteously up into his mother's face, as he strove to warm his little purple hands by thrusting them into the breast of his worn jacket. He was a pallid, yellow-haired child, with big blue eyes and sensitive mouth; a child who might have been beautiful had his lot been cast in life's sunshine, but who was now pale and pinched, like a plant that has grown in the dark.

Mrs. Hardwicke sat by the window of her cramped attic room; there was just room enough for her to sit upright where the ceiling sloped down to the dormer window; embroidering a net work of white lillies on an infant's sacque of blue merino. She had been very beautiful once; she was lovely even in the midst of her poverty and endurance.

"Mamma," resumed Willie, after a moment's silent watching of the cold sunshine that rippled over the floor at his feet, "did you know that today was Thanksgiving day."

"Yes, Willie."

Astounding Discovery.

From Coopersville, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid that when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensuing a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mrs. S. Himelburger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and never found its equal for Coughs and Colds." It's an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50 cents and $1.00 at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Trial bottles free.

Some one set fire to the sage grass in J. T. Day's river bottom land, near town, on Thursday last, by accident or design, which had it not been promptly discovered and extinguished would have caused great damage to fencing, &c. People should be very careful with fire in dry grass.

WANTED—Trustworthy men and women to travel and advertise for old established house of solid financial standing. Salary $780 a year and expenses, all payable in cash. No canvassing required. Give references and enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Address Manager, 355 Caxton Bldg., Chicago. tf

George Rice's House Rocked.

Just before services at the Christian church on Thursday night, some one threw several rocks thro' the front windows of Geo. Rice's residence, which is in the old hall in front of the church. One of the rocks just missed Mrs. Rice, who was sitting in a chair in her room. Two windows were shattered all to pieces, and the paper on the wall which was struck by the shattered glass looked like they had been struck with fine bird shot. Mr. Rice has no idea who the miscreant could be as he has no known enemy, but whoever it was should be ferreted out and adequately punished.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartly recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. H. F. PIERATT.

An Afflicted Family.

Four boys of mine host N. B. Graham of Hotel Day, are down with fever and whooping cough combined, and he is having a serious time with them. Misfortune seems to be on his trail as he has had more or less sickness in his family ever since he took the hotel, and he has the sympathy of the community in his affliction. Later. The youngest of the boys died Friday evening.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints, One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promply. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." H. F. PIERATT.

He Might Go to Indiana.

Good-bye, Senator Deboe. If you can't be happy in the state of Crittenden, you can drift into Indiana.—Mayfield Messenger.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs of Hall county, Ga. "Being a physician, I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. H. F. PIERATT.

New Democratic Chairman.

The county democratic committee of Wolfe county met pursuant to call of Chairman G. B. Swango in Hazel Green, Thursday, Nov. 14, 1901, all members being present in person or by proxy, when Judge Swango tendered his resignation.

Judge G. T. Center and J. F. Vansant were placed in nomination to fill the vacancy, and the vote being taken resulted as follows: Vansant received J. R. Carroll, No. 1, C. F. Quicksall, No. 2, D. B. Hollon, No. 5, G. W. Sally, No. 6, and H. C. Elkins, No. 8; total 5. Center received Clay Oliver, No. 3, Wayne Bryant, No. 4, and A. B. Landrum, No. 7; total 3. Mr. Vansant was thefore declared elected, and accepted the position.

The committeeman of Stillwater precinct tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and the chair appointed G. W. Sally pro tem.

There was present two proxies for Mr. Hollon, and the chair ruled that the first executed, or first date, had precedence, the second not revoking the first, which may lead to a contest.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires consitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimansals.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Get-Together Day.

It was get-together day in old Kentucky.—Somerset Journal.

At Hopkinsville last week night sessions of the Christian circuit court were held to dispose of the cases of James and Wm. Anderson and George Phillips, charged with the murder of Officer Robt. Coffey and shooting at Deputy Field.

The body of an unknown white man was found in a pile of driftwood in the Ohio river near Owensboro one day last week. Efforts to identify failed, and burial was in potters' field.

Granville Ross lost his balance on a roof at Samuel's depot at Bardstown, when a strong wind caught him, and he fell to the ground, breaking his nick.

A mule W. H. Vivian, a wealthy land owner, was riding balked, and reared, and threw him under a train near Mt. Sterling, and he was killed.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, November 21, 1901.

THE corner-stone of the new academy building was laid on Thursday last, pursuant to announcement, and notwithstanding it was a blustery day there was a good crowd present and much interest taken in the ceremony. The first thing on the program was the song, "America," which was sung by the students in a spirit of true patriotism. Then the address of Prof. W. H. Cord, welcoming all to the academy campus—a moment long looked for—the event for which we had met had been a figure of fancy, haunting both sleeping and wakeful hours, now about to be a reality.

The academy, a christian school with doors wide enough for any truth to enter. The christianity for which the academy will ever stand, shall mean liberty of mind, righteousness of life, and a home of rest in the Beulah Land.

Prayer was then offered by W. O. Mize, one of the founders, which was followed by the song, "Foundation," by the students. Scripture reading by Mrs. Ida Withers Harrison and prayer by Miss Judson came next, and both were listened to with profound interest. Address by Rev. H. D. Clark of Mt. Sterling was full of thought and highly complimentary to the C. W. B. M. upon their success and efforts. The address of greetings from the state board by Mrs. Sarah Yancey, secretary Kentucky C. W. B. M., showed the true christian spirit of the woman.

"Seeking the Lost," a song by the students, preceded the address of Mrs. Helen E. Moses, national secretary of the C. W. B. M., which was a gem of thought, full of meat, eloquent and well delivered, every word being eagerly caught.

Prof. S. M. Jefferson of the Kentucky University addressed the assembled throng and was greeted with applause for the grotesque pictures he drew and the quaint expressions he used. He brought greetings from the faculties of the university and College of Bible. He explained true education as being much more than that derived from books, by showing that it was the bettering of one's condition in all senses. He defined it briefly as being broader minded, more polite, more affectionate, more considerate of the conditions of all animate things, human or animal; be better, do better, die better. It was a masterly effort handled by a masterly mind.

At the close of his address, Prof. Jefferson expressed a desire to hear the college yell, and it was given in stentorian sound.

The articles were then put in the box to go in the corner-stone by Mesdames Harrison and Yancey, and the stone put in place by John B. Davis and assistants during the singing of "Shout the Tidings of Salvation," in which the audience took part. The contents were:

Pictures of W. O. Mize and Mrs. W. O. Mize, Wm. H. and Mrs. Cord, J. T. Day, G. B. Swango, Mrs. O. A. Burgess, Mrs. Helen E. Moses, Miss Mary Judson, Mrs. Atkinson, two copies of THE HERALD, July 11, and Nov. 14, respectively, copy of Missionary Tidings, Little Builders, Kentucky C. W. B. M. Prayer by Mrs. Moses concluded the ceremonies, when the people dispersed. Those who were present will remember the occasion with reverence and in years to come relate the incident with pride.

GOV. BEKHAM has designated Thursday, the 28th inst., as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God for His goodness, and suggests it as an occasion when those who are blessed with an abundance should succor those who are in adversity. Let every one determine on that day to aid some one who is weaker than he. There are few, indeed, but can make some unfortunate one happier on that day. When preparing for your fat feast think of some widow, or orphan, or cripple, and send or take them something. You will feel better for it and thus show the Master that you are not unmindful of His goodness to you. If you never before practiced this, try it Thursday next and you will enjoy the happiest day you ever spent.

Now it is said that old Putnam didn't leave his plow one day and start him out to fight, Sir; or, at least, that he didn't "gallop down a hundred steps and leave them in the lurch, Sir." Such is history. A hundred years from now, some people may even argue that Schley didn't win the battle of Santiago.

ABOUT THE MONTHLY WORLD.

THE MONTHLY WORLD is a 32-page Magazine with colored cover. It is copiously illustrated with pen drawings and half-tone reproductions of photographs. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and the beauty of its appearance.

Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered together from all over the world; the results of scientific research, and interesting editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day. Its comic pages will present the work of famous comic artists. There will be funny paragraphs and pictures.

A feature each month will be the large first page portrait of the most famed man or woman of the moment in the public eye.

In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared. It is one of the most attractive publications issued from the great city of New York. It furnishes high-class and widely varied entertainment to many thousand readers throughout North America.

Subscription 50 Cents a Year. But FREE to every new subscriber and all old subscribers who renew for THE HERALD before September 1, 1901. You get the value of $1.50 for only $1.00.

What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves?

In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility.

How are they expelled? By

Hood's Sarsaparilla

which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

It is the best medicine for all humors.

THE HERALD.

GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY

Born, to the wife of Dave Ross, of the Murphy fork, on Thursday, the 14th inst., a boy.

Read the new ad of H. F. Pieratt, which contains something of interest for everybody in this section.

Sam Wilson, the painter, finished painting the new residence of Bud Swango on Stillwater this week.

On the 14th Mesdames Harrison and Yancey of Lexington, organized an Auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. at this place.

Howard Kash of Rowan county, is visiting his brother Johnny and other relatives and friends in and about Hazel Green.

At the Christian church Sunday the topics for lessons will be, at 11 a. m., "Following Christ," at 6:30 p. m., "Trusting Jesus."

KEEP your blood pure and your stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will be WELL.

Call on Mrs. F. N. Day for ready-made skirts, of which she has just received a choice lot—warm and nice, and cheap. Also, a new lot of new hats.

This office turned out some bills for W. T. Swango this week announcing his sale on Saturday, Dec. 1, 1901, and bargain hunters will do well to attend same.

Do you want a business education? If so, write Prof. B. B. Jones, Lexington, or come to this office and receive a scholarship. We can save you $10.

Rev. H. D. Clark of Mt. Sterling, preached in the Christain church on the evening of the 13th, and Prof. S. M. Jefferson of Lexington, preached on the evening of the 14th.

Dr. Taulbee was called to see Jim Cox, a son of Fielden Cox, who injured his hand some time ago and had a finger amputated. The back of the hand had swollen and the abscess that he lanced ran nearly a half pint of corruption.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars tf

We want a good girl to cook, wash and iron for family of three; no cow to milk nor children to nurse; we only have two meals during these short days, and altogether the work is light. We pay $1 a week and will be obliged to any of our readers who will send us such a one.

Our Stillwater correspondent complains that some one has used his name in sending in correspondence, and intimates that the other fellow used language calculated to insult some one. An examination of last week's correspondence does not reveal anything of the kind, and we hope no one was hurt. If so, this will exhonerate our scribe.

Christ in Prophecy.

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are which testify of me."—John 5:39.

A series of sermons by Wm. H. Cord, principal of Hazel Green academy, the mountain mission of the C. W. B. M.

1st. "His Progenitors."
2nd. "His Nativity."
3rd. "His Childhood."
4th. "His Ministry."
5th. "His Character."
6th. "His Offices."
7th. "His Suffering."
8th. "His Death."
9th. "His Glorification,"

Come, let us study together "Christ in prophecy."

Blank School Reports for use of teachers of public schools for sale at this office—100 50 cents; 200 75¢; 300 $1.00.

THE CORNER-STONE.

BY J. LEROY BOGGS.

A rugged rock was waiting there,
Among the mosses on the hill;
It was not conscious of the place,
That, in the future, it must fill.

The trees and flowers came and went;
They moved like pilgrims o'er its crest,
Though all this bustle; all this stir,
Did not disturb its peaceful rest.

The passer-by would look with scorn
Upon its rugged surface bold;
They could not think that it was there
E'en in the "Golden days of old."

One day a mason of our town,
Sought to make a corner-stone;
He looked awhile, and then he found
This rugged rock there all alone.

His work he did with greatest skill,
He plied the chisel to the line,
And then he found when he was done,
His corner-stone did almost shine.

The rock was placed with greatest care
Upon a hill in Hazel Green,
And from the neighboring country 'round
A noble structure will be seen.

"An Empty Sack Cannot Stand Upright." Neither can poor, weak, thin blood nourish and sustain the physical system. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard purifier and true tonic for the blood.

Hood's Pills do not gripe. All druggists. 25c.

Joshua DeBusk and family left Monday for Oklahoma, the objective point being Wood, where his son Richmond is now located.

Bob Motley of the Murphy fork had the misfortune to lose a valuable mule one day last week. He was logging with him when he took sick, and laid down and died, notwithstanding all possible efforts to save him. Our man about town heard this while nosing for news Friday, and Bob's little brother-in-law, John Murphy, told it, which insures its accuracy.

It Saved Her Life.

Gooch's Mexican Syrup has accomplished a cure in this neighborhood which has astonished the people. Miss Davis was given up to die by her attending physician. She had lung fever. The doctor said she would die before morning, and advised to discontinue his medicine, as it was doing her no good. Her parents had a bottle of Gooch's Mexican Syrup and Gooch's Quick Relief in the house. They at once began to give the Syrup in doses one hour apart, and frequently bathed her chest with the Quick Relief. Before morning she was better, and after using a few bottles of each, she is almost as well as ever. It was almost like raising the dead, and has established the reputation of Gooch's Mexican Syrup here as a cough remedy; we can sell nothing else.

J. & N. SANDS,
Trimble, Athens county, O.

Gooch's Mexican Syrup cures a simple cough as if by magic, and is the best remedy for whooping cough. Price 25c.

Incidentally our man about town heard Friday that the day before Newt Taulbee of Lacy creek, hauled out 10 fat hogs, which had died of cholera, and John Murphy of the Murphy fork told him that he lost a fine one on Wednesday from the same cause.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL
WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

(☞ To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.)

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

CAMPTON BRIEFS.

Cud B. Hanks of this place, is very low with fever.

Daniel McQuinn of Callaboose, was in town Saturday.

The little baby of Wm. Cundiff died Friday night with scarlet fever.

E. L. Duncan of Lagrange, Ky., has been visiting in town for the past week.

C. C. Wireman and Granville Bailey of this place, went to Glencairn Sunday.

Note that pleasant smile on Dr. J. H. Stamper's face since that cow was changed into beef.

Judge J. W. Congleton left Monday morning for the city, where he will purchase his winter stock of goods.

Joe Cox, a soldier boy who has been serving in the Philippine Islands, has come home on a furlough.

Frank Stamper, high sheriff of Wolfe county, has resumed his same position driving the team for Euster & Firestine. We don't believe he'll do this after the 1st of January.

A delightful time was held by some of the young folks of our town Tuesday night at a candy pulling given by Mrs. Emily Byrd. Those who attended and were partners at the party, were Price Childers and Miss Pearlie Bowlin, Willie Collins and Miss Rinda Rose, Ike Rose and Miss Millie Center, Harlan Stamper and ? ? ?

Nov. 19. POT HOOKS.

SUNNY SIDE.

A. T. Brooks, who has been visiting his uncle, Camel Brooks, of Olive Hill, for a few days, returned last Wednesday.

Edward and Mollie Oney took dinner Sunday with J. W. Taulbee and family of Daysboro, and had such a nice time.

Miss Lula Taulbee, who is teaching on Boon fork, Breathitt county, was visiting her parents from Friday till Sunday.

Uncle Rastus Brooks went to Stillwater Saturday to see one of his grand children, who was said to be very sick with croup.

Misses Stella and Lula Hurst of Stillwater, and Alma Swango of Maytown, attended the laying of the corner-stone last Thursday.

Misses Monta and Nora Cruey, and India and Mollie Coldiron of your town, spent Saturday night with the family of J. E. Brooks, and report a good time.

Sallie Cruey and Jackson Sallie of Lacy creek, passed up here Sunday afternoon. Don't know whether they were just taking a buggy ride or a "bridal tour."

Kelly Nickell of Grassy, passed through here last week en route to Hazel Green. We suppose he called to see his grandma, Aunt Bettie Nickell, who remains very sick.

We enjoyed the Graham letter in the last week's issue, and also the biography of W. R. Tabor, which appeared sometime ago. We think that Mr. Tabor's business career in life is worthy of imitation.

Our horse "Jim Oney" has the distemper very bad. Uncle "Jollie John" said give him plenty of salt, but we find it a hard matter when he has no appetite for anything. But if he keeps on at the present rate getting thin, we will soon have to walk and lead. Now, and that's certain.

It has been our sweet privilege ever since we were old enough to work to have a little garden spot of our own to plant any kind of vegetables we wanted to. About the first of August we gathered our onions and sowed the same ground in turnips, which produced the largest yield of any one kind we ever tried our luck on. If the reader could see what nice ones we raised, they would say that Susie is a better hand with the hoe than the pen. Our crop amounted to five bushels. Twelve years ago we raised four bushels of sweet potatoes, and done all the work ourselves.

We spent last Thursday night with Miss Daisy Day of Hazel Green, and for us to say that we had a good time the tale would only half be told; and the kindness that we received at the hands of Mesdames Day and Kash will not very soon be forgotten. Mrs. Kash remains very sad over the death of her husband, R. A. Kash, and we sympathize with her, but she should forget her troubles, if possible, and live for those three interesting children God has given her. For we believe in that saying, "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Nov. 19. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

H. C. Ward of Hazel Green, was seen in Toliver Sunday.

Nellie Cox was the pleasant guest of Lucy McNabb Sunday.

Henry Mannin of Pomeroyton, was in Toliver Saturday on business.

Miss Pearly Johnson and sister of Lacky creek, were in Toliver Sunday.

Miss Emma Cox, who has been at Hazel Green for sometime, returned home Sunday.

Joe Ingram and Dorce of Maytown, were in Toliver Sunday to see their best girls.

James Cox, who got his finger cut off by a saw mill, is suffering very badly at this writing.

The children of B. F. Boling were visiting uncle Job Ross and wife of Menefee county, from Saturday until Sunday.

Will Tom Wills, Byrd McNabb and sister returned last week from a visit near Mt. Sterling, and report a fine time.

O. W. McNabb, on the 5th inst., arrested George Mays near Campton, on a charge of stealing five head of cattle in Menefee county, and turned him over to W.C. Taylor of Menefee county.

Elijah Noble of Jackson, was visiting his father of this place, from Saturday until Monday, and then returned to Jackson, where he will enter school again.

O. W. McNabb has completed the contract of furnishing lumber to build a bridge across Red river, and Charley Gosney is building the bridge. So in a short time we can cross the rive at any time.

Nov. 19. SUNSHINE.

MORGAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Mrs. A. J. Blankenship is improving slowly.

Edward Lewis has moved in the property vacated by J. D. DeBusk.

Mort Wilson and Sidney Bishop attended meeting at Salem Sunday.

John Taulbee made a flying trip to Stillwater Saturday on business.

Scott Lacy was visiting ye scribe Sunday and meandered further down the creek

Josh DeBusk and family left Monday morning for Oklahoma, where they expect to make their future home.

Dr. Center did not fill his appointment Sunday, but will continue to preach every third Sunday.

George Oldfield, known as "little George, will show Monday night at Consolation. His show consists of a magic lantern, and he will lecture on the services he has.

Opossum hunting is the order of the day, and watching a firry flying serpent is the order of the night. We will leave off the names of our informant, but can give them if necessary. We didn't see it ourself; there seems to be great excitement over what has been seen in the elements.

Mr. Womack, the superindent of schools, visited the Consolation school Friday, and he said it was the most progressive school he had visited in the county. J. Leroy Boggs of your town, has certainly proved himself a teacher without exception. He has never brought a switch in the house, and we have never heard a complaint from the patrons or pupils yet.

Pile-ine Cures Piles!

Money refunded if it ever fails.

Sunday is the regular appointment for services at the Methodist church in this place, and the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Greening, will fill the pulpit on that occasion. He preached at Caney on Sunday night and had quite a good congregation. He has been unfortunate in not getting his furniture, &c., and unless arrangements are completed this week to insure its early arrival, he will probably be assigned to another field of labor.

Sidewalks Must Now Be Built!

There are a number of sidewalks in the town only partly built, or badly built, which must be completed according to specifications on file in the Secretary's book. The matter of building walks or pavements, has been kept quiet, pending the decision in the McNabb case in the Court of Appeals. Now, as it has been shown that the Board of Trustees has sole control of the building of sidewalks, it will be expected that all walks be put in first-class condition at once. There will be no "dilly-dallying" any more. Property owners who have been ordered to build sidewalks may call upon the clerk, C. B. Rose, for specifications.

We claim to be the Lowest Priced Whiskey House. We really sell whiskey as low as $1.10 per gallon, and mind you: distilled whiskey—not a decoction of chemicals—but of course it is new and under proof.

Our "Mountain Dew" 5 year old whiskey is a liquid joy! It is actually produced by honest Tar Heels in the Mountain Section of N. C., by the old time hand process. Every drop is boiled over open furnace wood fires, in old style copper stills, in exactly the same way as distilled by our grandfathers a century ago. First rate whiskey is sold at $5 and $6 per gallon, but is not any better than "Mountain Dew." It is the best in the world and must please every customer or we will buy it back for Gold—and the Peoples National Bank of Winston, N. C., will tell you our guarantee is good. To more fully introduce "Mountain Dew," we offer either three or five gallons (in plain sealed box), at the special price of $1.95 per gallon, cash with order. Positively no larger amount shipped. On future shipments we will require the usual price, viz: $2.95 per gal. Express prepain to all regular customers. We have branch warehouses in Denver, St. Louis, and Cincinnati, but all orders and remittances (in stamps, cash or by check, etc.) as well as requests for confidential price list must be addressed as follows:

+ THE ARENA. +

Under the editorial management of Chas. Brodie Patterson, B. O. Flower and John Emery McLean.

The COMING AGE has been merged into the ARENA, and B. O. Flower, who founded and built up the ARENA, has returned to its editorial department, in which work he is associated with Mr. Charles Brodie Patterson, President of the Alliance School of Applied Metaphysics, author of a number of leading works devoted to the New Thought, and one of the most advanced philosophical thinkers of the times, and Mr. John Emery McLean, who for the last two years has been the working editor of the ARENA, and is now associated with Mr. Patterson in the editorship of MIND. This able editorial staff is assisted by the strongest and most authoritative thinkers in the New World, who from month to month contribute their best thoughts to the review which for many years has occupied a foremost position in the very vanguard of the great authoritative magazines of the English speaking world. It is the determination of the present management to restore the ARENA to its old prestige and make it absolutely indispensable to all wide awake and progressive people. Here is a list of a few contributors to early issues. They are sufficient to indicate the authoritative character of the ARENA under its new editorial management:

Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, LL.D.
Dr. R. Osgood Mason.
Rev. R. Heber Newton, D.D.
Prof. James H. Hyslop, Ph.D.
Prof. Frank Parsons.
Justice Walter Clark, LL.D.
Hamlin Garland.
Prof. George D. Herron.
Prof. John Ward Stimson.
Prof. James T. Bixby, Ph.D.
Rev. E. T. Powell.
Reuen Thomas, D.D.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

ORIGINAL ESSAYS, constituting a Senate of Progress, in which the great living issues of the time are ably and fairly discussed.

SYMPOSIA, giving master thoughts of representative thinkers on all sides of questions that are prominently before the public.

CONVERSATIONS with the leading thinkers on live topics. This most popular feature of the COMING AGE has been introduced into the ARENA. Most of these Conversations are preceded by a brief biographical sketch of the famous person who discusses the theme in hand.

ON THE STOA OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY, a brilliant and attractive feature containing brief questions and pertinent answers on leading social, economic, and educational problems.

BIOGRAPHIC SKETCHES and Pen Pictures of the Great Ones who have helped the world onward.

EDITORIALS on Topics of the Times, by B. C. Flower.

BOOKS OF THE DAY, reviewed by Mr. Flower.

FICTION of the choicest quality, from the pens of the cleverest story writers of the day.

The ARENA, even taken separately, is the cheapest or the great original authoritative reviews published in America In combination with THE HERALD its actual cost is only $1.50.

A WORD ABOUT "MIND."

The magazine, MIND, is a large and handsome monthly review, edited by John Emery McLean and Charles Brodie Patterson (with whom Mr. Flower is associated in editing the ARENA), and devoted to the New Thought, embracing Practical Metaphysics, Psychical Science, the New Psychology, Occultism, etc. Among its contributors are such writers of international reputation as the Rev. R. Heber Newton, the Hon. Boyd Winchester, LL.D., Prof. George D. Herron, and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

The Democrats Aroused.

Once more the democrats of Jessamine have acieved a glorious victory. Whenever they get on their working clothes as they did in this campaign, it is useless for the enemy to appear against them. The democrats were aroused as they have seldom been in this county before.—Jessamine Journal.

That Thobbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by J. T. Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, druggists.

The Democratic Balance.

When it comes to adding up all the democratic majorities in Kentucky and subtracting therefrom the measly little republican majorities, it will be found that there is a net balance to the credit of the democrats of about 30,000.—Owensboro Messenger.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act; strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. H. F. Pieratt.

Praise For Campaign Committee.

Much credit is due the democratic campaign committee for the excellence of their labors in this county during the campaign just closed. They have worked hard and faithfully, and their efforts have borne good fruit.—Bourbon News.

Great Luck of An Editor.

"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed, writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for eruptions, sores and all skin diseases Only 25c per box. Sold by J. T Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton.

Not Done By Halves.

Kentucky did not do things by halves this time. The legislature will be democratic by a majority twice as large as the republican vote on joint ballot.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

A QUEER WILL BURIED

In a Bucket With the Testator's Gold—Among Other Relics Was An Old Cob Pipe.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 13.—Perhaps the most unique will ever written was dug up at Echoles, Ky., last evening. Here it is:

"The last will and testament of Ben O. Mansfield.

"Paradise, Ky., Nov. 17, 1871.

"I know me life air short in this wurld, an' as I hain't got no relatives here and not meni frenz I burry my money, and the man who fines it kin have it. I have some reliks here also you can have them two. Ben O. Mansfield."

While repairing an old building James M. O'Conner noticed a piece of wire, partly buried, and when he pulled it up he found that it had been fastened to a tin bucket, now almost eaten to pieces. O'Conner, after removing a little earth, found an old bucket. The lid was removed and a few old papers taken out. At the bottom was $1,815 in gold, wrapped in a paper upon which was written the above will.

Among the relics mentioned by the eccentric testator was an old cob pipe.

O'Conner is a laboring man with seven children and an invalid wife, and no one could appreciate this find of treasure more than he.

Mansfield resided in the house under which the money was found the last six years of his life.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purfies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, rundown man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores.

Everything Is Lovely.

Everything is lovely and democracy still lives and is greatly strengthened by the fight that ended Tuesday evening.—Carrollton News.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for 10 years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.:

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle the Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully,
O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

Dr. Taft Bros. Med. Co.: February 5, 1901.

Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full-size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz:
Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors.
County Appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses.
The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.
The last Legislature appropriated $50,000 for a college home for young women, and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men.
Military tactics and science are fully provided for and required by Congress.
Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.
Last year the matriculation list was 620.
For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.:

I purchased some of the Vitæ-Ore of you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half-pint of the Vitæ-Ore Elixer my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitæ Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days' as hard work as I have done in 25 years, and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the grandest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitæ-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy.

JAMES LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitæ Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use.
